This is the iconic Apostolic Faith Mission International Ministries Church Logo used widely across the world. The logo consists of two symbols one of a cross and the other of a crown. Apostolic Faith Mission in Zimbabwe and the Apostolic Faith Mission in South Africa also use the same logo. Churches may have a variation of the logo especially with their name wrapped around the logo. The Use of Invective in Apologetics by Sandy Simpson. This DVD is a message based on this article.. This article is about the use of invective while attempting to do apologetics or teaching discernment. Official website of the New Apostolic Church International. Three churches from the Dutch Reformed Church tradition in South Africa are often mentioned together as "three sister churches". They are the Dutch Reformed Church in South Africa (NGK), Dutch Reformed Church in South Africa (NHK), and Reformed Churches in South Africa (GK).. The NGK originated in the 17th century from the Dutch Reformed Church of the Netherlands.
