Beirut Noir is a collection of short stories in the Noir series published by Akashic Books. The stories were originally written in French, English or Arabic and all are set within the city of Beirut. Given their geographic setting, the Lebanese civil war, which engulfed the city from 1975-90, looms large within the stories. Some stories are set within the civil war, while others are shaped by its effects on the city itself, as well as the way the war molded the Lebanese people. It is an urban and rural city, one of violence and forgiveness, memory and forgetfulness. Beirut is a city of war and peace. This short story collection is a part of a vibrant, living recovery of Beirut. Beirut Noir recovers the city once again through writing, through the literary visions of its authors . . . Akashic Books continues its groundbreaking series of original noir anthologies, launched in 2004 with Brooklyn Noir. Each story is set in a distinct neighborhood or location within the city of the book. Bücher (Fremdsprachig) Wählen Sie die Abteilung aus, in der Sie suchen möchten.
