What inspired you to write Drawing Masterclass, Creative Techniques Of 100 Great Artists? Primarily it was the experience I've gained over the last 10 years of teaching Introduction to Drawing and Painting and Personal Inspiration at Central Saint Martins. When I first saw the book, I was reminded of another book that I've featured before, Drawing Lessons From the Great Masters. The concept of both books are similar. Study and learn from great artists. 'Drawing Masterclass' explores the act of vision of the world's great artists, describing how the images were created to allow you to weave some of this magic into your own drawings.
