Sparknotes

SparkNotes, originally part of a website called The Spark, is a company started by Harvard students Sam Yagan, Max Krohn, Chris Coyne, and Eli Bolotin in 1999 that originally provided study guides for literature, poetry, history, film, and philosophy. The study guide she gives for the tests is word for word what the test looks like, and I was able to find all of the study guides on quizlet. There is soooooo much extra reading for the book quizzes and a separate area of the tests that are questions on the novels that are required to read. Citing and more! Add citations directly into your paper, Check for unintentional plagiarism and check for writing mistakes. You really dont even need the novels. If you use the handouts, memorize the -ism definitions, and study off the quizlet you will be fine. The only thing is if you dont write the answers word for word on the quizzes he will mark you down.
