

Download How To Do Your Own Therapy

There are tons of “green” bathroom cleaners on the market, but most of the time it’s cheaper and just as effective to make your own. Armed with a few simple non-toxic and biodegradable ingredients, you can keep your bathroom fresh and sparkling. I know that by after reading the title of this post you’re thinking how disgusting it would be to drink your own urine. But to be honest even if you’re reading to this point you’re probably slightly intrigued by the idea. After trying out the reusable, beeswax-coated Bee’s Wrap for our “Green Your Clean” series, I wondered how easy it would be to make my own beeswax-coated food wrap. “Moderately,” it turned out.
