Chapters include the Intellectual Aristocracy, Moore at Cambridge, the Apostles (secret society in the UK), Moore as an Apostle, Moore's apprenticeship, working for a Fellowship, his time as a Prize fellow of Trinity, Principia Ethica and much more. Moore: G.E. Moore and the Cambridge Apostles. His presence is shewn by the movement of the whole of his own body or by internal causes undiscoverable to science. The lowest animal I conceive has both will and consciousness, and one thing which puts them into connection is two abstractions – pleasure and pain. Moore : G.E. Moore and the Cambridge Apostles.
